

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF JOURNALISM & NEW MEDIA
A PROJECT OF THE BS&G FOUNDATION

Admission procedure consists of:

1. Completion and submission of application form
2. Admission Test, Personal Interview, and Counselling
3. Notification and acceptance of admission

Deadline for completion and submission of Application Form:

Completed application form must reach IJNM by no later than June 10, 2019. Late applicants may submit completed form and supporting documents after this date, which may be considered for admission only if vacancies are still available. The application will not be considered unless all answers are typewritten (or printed legibly), signed and dated.

Note: Early applications must be submitted prior to March 31, 2019 to avail a concession of Rs. 10,000. We encourage submitting applications early to assure quick completion of the admission process to the limited number of seats. Those awaiting college examination results may be given conditional admission.

Checklist of Application:

All applicants must submit online or mail the following to the Admissions Committee at the address given below:

1. Completed application form.
2. Attach a photocopy of your marks transcripts and degree certificates. Students awaiting final examination results may submit their provisional degree certificates or the latest marks transcripts.
3. Application essay: Describe a recent event that has received major national or international attention, and how it affected you (between 600 and 750 words).
4. Pay Rs. 1,000 application-processing fee by credit card or bank draft or pay order (payable at Bangalore) and drawn in favour of "IJNM Bangalore."
5. Supporting material (if any) such as writing samples (published), record of achievements, etc.

Notification of Admission: The results of admission test and personal interview will be made known via email and by courier within 10 days.

Open Days for visit to IJNM Campus:

“Open Days” and admission counselling will be available at regular intervals during the admission period at our campus in Bangalore. Applicants who have not availed the opportunity to take the Admission Test or the Interview may request the same on any of the Open Days.

The Open Days will include a tour of our campus where you will be able to see the range of facilities, understand the program structure, and interact with our academic staff and alumni. While it is not mandatory, all candidates/applicants are encouraged to participate on our Open Days and experience the atmosphere of the Institute.

Admission Counselling will be conducted by the Director of Admissions. This is an opportunity for candidates/applicants and their parents to ask questions about the program, job placement, hostel facilities, etc.

Registration:

Students are required to arrive in college 2 days prior to the start of the academic year for registration.

Students are also assigned their dormitory residence and may stay in the hostel from the registration day itself.

All fees paid are non-refundable.
